

First Udon noodles ever since establishment Tantan Udon with Sake lees by KAMUKURA

Dotonbori KAMUKURA, run by Risojitsugyo, Co., Ltd.(based in Nara, Japan) is going to release the first Udon noodles from Tuesday,Jan.24th, a limited product called "Hamon".

The new product is a result of collaboration with the new film "Hamon" (in the meaning of "expulsion" in Japanese), which will be on show from Saturday, Jan.28th.

Based on a creamy Dan dan soup (which is made from sea same and spices in a Chinese style) , this new product brings a special sweet taste due to the flavor of sake lees. This will be the first Udon noodle dish in KAMUKURA, which has long been well-known as a Ramen chain.

The new Udon noodle "Hamon" will be available in all the branches of KAMUKURA over Japan for a limited period about one month.
